

HOLDING DEPOSIT AGREEMENT

These terms and conditions apply to your application to rent a property through Cherry Lets (hereinafter referred to as 'the agent'), and constitute a binding legal contract. By signing the Agreement you agree to comply with the terms and conditions below. If you are unsure of your obligations under this Agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

- 1. A holding deposit is payable upon your request to rent a property. The purpose of the holding deposit is to reserve the Property for the Applicant whilst the Landlord completes the referencing process and the terms of the tenancy and any guarantee agreement are negotiated. The Property will be reserved subject to the Landlord receiving satisfactory replies to referencing checks, Right to Rent checks and other pre-tenancy enquiries.
- 2. Nothing in this agreement requires or suggests that a tenancy for the Property, or any other premises will be granted to the Applicant(s).
- 3. Where the Landlord and the Applicant enter into a tenancy agreement relating to the Property it is agreed that the holding deposit will be credited to the Applicant's rent account.
- 4. Subject to Clauses 6 (a) and (b), the holding deposit will be refunded to the Applicant where the Landlord decides not to enter into a tenancy agreement before the Deadline for Agreement (see below).
- 5. Subject to Clauses 6 (a), (b), (c) and (d), the holding deposit will be refunded to the Applicant where the Landlord and the Applicant fail to enter into a tenancy agreement relating to the Property before the Deadline for Agreement.
- 6. The holding deposit will not be refunded to the Applicant where:
 - (a) The Applicant does not have a 'right to rent' a property (under Part 3 of the Immigration Act 2014) and the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent did not know, and could not reasonably have been expected to know this, before the holding deposit was accepted;
 - (b) The Applicant provides false or misleading information, and the Landlord or the Landlord's Agent is reasonably entitled to take into account the Applicant's actions in providing false or misleading information or the difference between the false and correct information in deciding whether to grant a tenancy to the Applicant;
 - (c) The Applicant notifies the Landlord or letting agent before the Deadline for Agreement that the Applicant does not want to enter into a tenancy agreement;
 - (d) The Landlord or the Landlord's Agent takes all reasonable steps to enter into a tenancy agreement before the Deadline for Agreement, but the tenant fails to take all reasonable steps to enter into the agreement before that date.

The holding deposit should be paid by bank transfer to the following account:

STANDARD TERMS, CONDITIONS AND INFORMATION FOR TENANTS

These terms and information apply to your application to rent a property through the Agent. They do not grant or promise a tenancy to the applicant or anyone else. Reference is made to the landlord or the agent as the landlord may manage the property in let-only situations. Where the agent is managing the property during the tenancy you should report any issues to the agent.

1. HOW TO RENT GUIDE

The Applicant is advised to read the Government 'How to rent: the checklist for renting in England' which is available from the government website www.gov.uk. The guidance aims to help Tenants renting property in England understand their rights and responsibilities when renting and provides a checklist and more detailed information on each stage of the process. The Applicant will be given a copy of the 'How to rent: the checklist for renting in England' by the agent where the tenancy proceeds in England.

2. RIGHT TO RENT CHECKS

The Agent or Landlord is required by law to carry out immigration checks on occupiers at the Property. All occupiers who are authorised to live at the Property, whether or not they are named on the tenancy agreement, will be required to provide the Landlord or Agent with documentation to support their right to rent property in the UK prior to the tenancy being granted. Where an occupier has a time limited right to rent the Landlord or Agent is required by law to carry out follow up checks on the occupier. Where the occupier cannot subsequently produce evidence that they have a right to rent property in the UK, the Landlord or Agent must make a report to the Home Office. Where the Landlord or Agent has received notice from the Home Office stating that one or more of the occupier(s) do not have a right to rent the Property the Landlord or Agent may end the tenancy in accordance with the provisions of the Immigration Act 2014 (as amended).

The Right to Rent Form will need to be completed for each prospective occupier (please see below) prior to the completion of the Tenancy Agreement supporting their right to rent property in the UK. For amendments including additional prospective occupiers the above would also apply.

3. REFERENCES

All Applicants (including where required all Adult Occupiers) will provide references which are satisfactory to the Landlord before any tenancy can be entered into. The referencing will be carried out in conjunction with the referencing company HomeLet. Forms can either be completed online or the Agent can provide copies to be completed by hand and returned to the Agent.

4. GUARANTOR

If a guarantor is required and it is acceptable to the Landlord to have a guarantor (the guarantor is usually a member of the Applicant's family or a close associate, who is of sufficient means to provide a suitable reference), the guarantor will be referenced, also in conjunction with the referencing company Homelet. This person will be required to sign a legally binding document, which could make the Guarantor liable for the Applicant's obligations under the tenancy agreement. This could make the guarantor liable for the rent for the full term of occupancy as well as the full cost of any damage if the Tenant breaches the terms of the tenancy.

5. PROOF OF IDENTIFICATION

For reasons of fraud prevention and for proof of identification purposes, please ensure that before the completion of the Tenancy Agreement that you have provided a copy of two forms of identification, one of each of the following:

- Photographic ID - a current driving licence or current passport (not required if one of these documents has been used for the Right to Rent Check).
- Proof of current address e.g. bank statement or utility bill (dated in the last three months and not a mobile telephone bill).

6. SIGNING CONTRACTS

The letting contract or agreement must be signed by all parties and, until this has taken place and the Tenancy agreement is executed, no tenancy exists. For the avoidance of doubt, these tenancy terms are subject to contract and nothing in this document should be seen as granting or promising to grant a tenancy to the Applicant or anyone else. Once the referencing has been completed and is satisfactory, the letting contract or agreement will be drafted for the period agreed. This will be forwarded to the Applicant to read over to ensure mutual agreement. The Applicant will have adequate opportunity to read and understand the letting contract or agreement before signing.

The Tenancy agreement is to be signed by all parties on or prior to the Deadline for Agreement date. If the Applicant is unsure of their obligations under the Tenancy Agreement, then they are advised to take independent legal advice before signing. Please also see a specimen Tenancy Agreement on pages 9-13.

7. METHOD OF PAYMENT

The balance of the first rental payment is to be paid by bank transfer and received in cleared funds. WE WILL NOT ACCEPT PERSONAL CHEQUES OR CASH.

Where there is more than one Tenant, a lead Tenant will be appointed. The Tenant will set up a standing order facility for the total amount of rental on that property. The lead Tenant will be the main point of contact for the Agent and will represent the interests of any joint Tenants and will act on their behalf in connection with the deposit and any forms relating to the deposit. The rental will be paid in advance by Standing Order as one payment (a standing order mandate will be provided for the total amount of monthly rental). Delayed rent payment causes considerable extra administration and delays payments to the Landlord.

8. MOVING IN

It is the applicant's responsibility to arrange services (normally telephone, gas, electricity, television licence, satellite TV, internet and water). Applications for electricity and gas supply need to be made directly to the supplier. The Agent or Landlord cannot accept responsibility for any costs incurred with connection of supplies.

The move in date will be on a normal working day (Monday to Friday excluding bank holidays and between the hours of 9:30 am and 4pm) and pre arranged. When you move in, you should check carefully the condition of the property and its contents with respect to the Inventory. The Inventory is an important record used to assess any damage, dilapidations or losses during the tenancy which may lead to deductions from the deposit being made at the end of the tenancy. If you find anything that is not in good order, then we ask you to report it to us within the first week of moving in so that the problem can be put right or marked on the Inventory. The Inventory is given to the Tenant at the start of the tenancy. The Tenant shall be given the opportunity to review as soon as possible within the ten days of occupation, with any appropriate alterations or notes as found.

The property is let as seen at the time of viewing; and requests for extra furniture, appliances or redecoration will not normally be considered after the tenancy has been entered into.

9. DECORATION

You cannot make any alterations or additions to the property or affix anything to the internal or external surfaces without the permission of the Landlord. Affixing things to the internal or external surfaces can cause damage to the property. For example, screws, hooks and similar items can damage wallpaper and plaster and leave holes in the walls and blu-tack can leave stubborn grease marks and pull paint and wallpaper off the walls when removed. Such damage may result in a deduction from your damage deposit for redecoration costs.

10. TENANCY DEPOSIT

The Tenant pays the Deposit as security for the performance of the Tenant's obligations and to pay and compensate the Landlord for the reasonable costs of any breach of those obligations. It is specifically agreed that this money is not to be used by the Tenant as payment for any rent due under this Agreement. No interest shall be payable on this Deposit.

Where the tenancy is an assured shorthold tenancy (AST), the Landlord or Agent is legally required to ensure that any tenancy deposit taken under the tenancy is protected within a statutory tenancy deposit scheme within 30 days of receipt and comply with the rules of the scheme. Details of the scheme and the dispute resolution provisions will be issued within 30 days of receipt of the deposit. The tenancy deposit is usually the equivalent of five weeks rent.

For Letting Agreements or Contracts other than an Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement, the deposit requirements will be advised separately but will usually be the equivalent of five weeks rent.

The balance of the Deposit to be paid to the Tenant as soon as reasonably possible after the conclusion of the tenancy, less any reasonable costs incurred for the breach of any obligation as agreed with the Tenant, or decided by the Court or by the appropriate deposit scheme.

11. FROST DAMAGE

Frost damage is a risk to all properties left empty during the winter period due to possible pipe bursts and flooding. You are required to take reasonable precautions to prevent frost damage if you are away from the property for anything other than a very short period. Such precautions might include leaving the heating on (and turned down to a low setting) and opening the loft access hatch to allow warm air to circulate into the attic space. If you are away for a more extended period, then you should contact the Agent regarding more permanent arrangements such as turning off the mains water supply or draining down the heating system. Failure to carry out these precautions could make you liable for any damage caused, as you will be in breach of your obligation as a Tenant to take good care of the property.

12. INSURANCE

As a Tenant, you will be responsible for the safe-keeping of the property and its contents. You may wish to consider obtaining insurance for your own personal effects and for the contents and property belonging to the Landlord which you have agreed to look after. The Tenant should ensure that they have sufficient means to cover their liability for accidental damage to the Landlord's property, furniture, fixtures and fittings.

13. REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE

Tenants are requested to bring any disrepair, damage or defect in the premises to the attention of the Agent as soon as possible. In the event of emergency repairs, please call the Agent (out of hours, there will be an answerphone message with the emergency number).

The Landlord has a legal responsibility to maintain the fabric and services of the building (water supply, drains, heating and hot water etc.). Tenants should use the drains responsibly and not dispose of any inappropriate items down the toilet or sink which could cause the drains to block such as cooking fat, oil or grease, waste food, nappies, sanitary products, baby/hand wipes and cotton wool etc. The Tenant will be responsible for unblocking any drains which become blocked due to the Tenant's misuse.

Any damage, breakdowns or other maintenance problems should be reported as soon as possible to the Agent. As the Tenant you are responsible for all appliances left in the property and should take good care of them. This will involve using any appliance in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions or user manual and carrying out any minor maintenance that would be expected (e.g. cleaning or changing filters etc.)

The Landlord will undertake to cover genuine breakdowns (i.e. not caused by Tenant misuse, neglect or similar reasons) and pay the related repair costs on any appliance detailed in the Inventory and not excluded on the Letting Contract or Agreement.

14. LEGIONNAIRE'S DISEASE

The potential risk of exposure to Legionella from most residential hot or cold water systems in the UK is very low, but the law requires that we alert Tenants to these risks in any case. For most healthy people, the risk of developing Legionnaire's disease in a typical well-maintained domestic setting is negligible. There is a higher risk of infection with older people and people with lowered immune systems, which can lead to severe pneumonia or other complications.

In the domestic environment, risks of Legionella may increase where the property is unoccupied for a short period, or where water is being stored between 20°C and 50°C. In particular, Tenants are advised to:

- inform the Agent if they believe the hot water temperature is below 50°C or the hot water tank/boiler is defective in any way
- advise the Agent if they believe that the cold water temperature is above 20°C
- flush through little used outlets for 2 minutes once every week or two, or on return from a holiday
- clean, disinfect and descale shower heads at least once every six months
- notify the Agent if they notice any debris or discolouration in the hot or cold water

15. FIRE SAFETY

i. Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarms

You will find that smoke alarms (and carbon monoxide alarms where applicable) have been fitted in your property. Please ensure that you check all such devices on moving into the property and familiarise yourself with their operation (most smoke detectors have a test button to check batteries and the unit are operating correctly) and report any problems to the Agent. The Landlord is responsible for checking the alarms are in proper working order at the start of the tenancy and you will be responsible for testing the alarms during the tenancy.

Government guidance recommends that you should test the alarms regularly (testing monthly is generally considered appropriate) to make sure they are in proper working order and arrange replacement of any batteries that may be required. If the alarm is still not working after replacement of batteries, or you are unable to replace the batteries yourself, then you will need to report this to the Agent immediately.

ii. Fire risks and escape routes

Candles, open chip pans and deep fat fryers are some of the most common causes of household fires. These items are a fire hazard risk which can cause injury to yourself, others and damage to the property. You should not use open chip pans in the property or deep-fat fryers that are not thermostat-controlled. Great care should be taken with candles, oil burners and deep fat fryers. These items should not be left unattended and you should ensure that candles, oil burners and similar items are put out properly and kept away from flammable materials (for example curtains and other furnishings). You will be responsible for any damage caused to the property as a result of the use of these items and other items which may cause a fire.

You should ensure that all exits and emergency access routes at the property are kept clear, including any communal areas, and should report any defects or damage (e.g. damaged fire doors or faulty alarms) to the Agent.

16. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS AND EQUIPMENT

You should ensure that you do not store any hazardous materials or goods in or at the property (other than those required for general household use) or any equipment or items that may be a hazard or cause damage to the property (including electric bikes or electric scooters) without the Landlord's written permission.

Some insurance companies may provide limited cover where electric bikes or electric scooters are stored at the property so it is important that consent is requested from the Landlord so they can check their insurance policy and advise of any specific storage requirements if consent is granted. Electric bikes and scooters may cause fires particularly if non-genuine batteries are used which do not meet official safety standards or where the batteries are damaged. If consent is granted you should ensure that you use the manufacturer's approved charging batteries, you do not leave the bike or scooter unattended whilst charging and you do not leave it plugged in after charging is complete.

By law, you must not store petrol or hazardous quantities of similar inflammable fuels in any living accommodation. You may keep up to 5 litres of petrol or diesel in a separate garage or other outbuilding or store, without the Landlord's permission, provided it is stored in a suitable petrol or diesel fuel container and any fire safety requirements are met.

17. ALARMS

Where the property is alarmed using a security code, the Tenant must not change the alarm code without obtaining prior written consent from the Landlord or the Agent. The Landlord and Agent needs to hold alarm and similar security information for emergency, maintenance and inspection purposes; if any alteration is made to the code, you are requested to inform the Agent as soon as possible.

18. TELEVISION AERIALS

The Tenant is responsible for maintaining in good repair the television aerials, satellite dishes or similar installations for use with any television at the property. You are also reminded that a television licence is required in order to use a television at the property and the Tenant would be responsible for this cost.

19. DAMP AND CONDENSATION

Damp can be a problem in houses where there are many occupants and the property is not adequately heated or ventilated. You should ensure that you use the extractor fans after bathing, showering and cooking in order to allow damp air a chance to escape and open windows/vents to encourage adequate flow of fresh air through the property to help prevent condensation. The property should also be kept to a minimum temperature of 15 degrees celcius in cold weather as cold rooms are susceptible to condensation. You should use a clean dry cloth to remove any condensation on windows and surfaces to help prevent mould forming.

Washing and wet clothes should be hung outside. The hanging of washing and wet clothes inside will also create large amounts of damp air and again, it will be important to provide adequate heating and ventilation. Where it is necessary to dry washing inside then the space around it should be clear so that warm air can circulate, and the door of that room should be kept closed to avoid moisture spreading to other rooms. Window vents and windows in the room should be open to help ventilate the room and dehumidifiers used to reduce excess moisture to help prevent condensation and mould forming. Damp or wet washing should not be hung on heaters, including radiators, or on any of the Landlord's furniture in the property as continuously doing so can cause damage. You are responsible, under the terms of the tenancy, for the reasonable costs in remedying any damage caused

The presence of mould or dark spots or stains, especially in bathrooms and other wet areas, is a common sign of inadequate ventilation, and it is important to prevent further spread at an early stage before severe and irreversible staining takes place. Mould and similar stains should be removed by wiping the affected areas with a fungicide or mild bleach in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions, but do test on a small area first. If the problem persists, then you should inform the Agent.

20. PESTS AND WASTE COLLECTION

Fortunately, with modern building and repair standards, we expect few tenants to be troubled by household pests during their tenancy. An infestation of any kind, be it ants, fungal attack, bedbugs, fleas, wasps, rats, mice etc makes a property unpleasant to live in and should be eradicated as soon as possible. Regular cleaning and vacuuming will help to prevent any such infestation taking hold, and you are expected to take care of the property in this way and keep a watchful eye for unwelcome visitors as part of your tenancy obligations. During the tenancy, the tenant is responsible for keeping the property free of any pests, and also for any damage that might occur as a result. You should inform the Agent if you discover any pest infestation at the property.

You should ensure that you put any refuse in a properly closed receptacle and do not allow it to overflow. The refuse should be left out on the normal day(s) in the designated area for refuse collection. Local authorities may issue penalty charges to householders who do not follow their waste collection rules and whose actions cause, or are likely to cause, a nuisance or have a negative effect on local amenities. For example, where refuse attracts vermin or where wheelchair users and those using pushchairs are forced to walk on the road because the refuse is in the way or left out for days.

21. GAS APPLIANCES

Gas Safety regulations apply to both Landlords and Tenants in rented property. In order to comply with the regulations, it is necessary:

- that brown or sooty build-up on any gas appliance, or gas escape should be reported immediately to the Agent AND your gas supplier. The number of the gas emergency service is 0800 111 999.
- that ventilators installed in the premises for the correct operation of the gas appliance should not be blocked.
- that safety checks be carried out every 12 months on any gas appliance in the property by a Gas Safe Register approved engineer. The Tenant is required to allow entry with reasonable notice for this purpose. A copy of the gas safety record will be made available to Tenants. A reasonable charge may be made for missed appointments to reflect any damages or loss suffered for breach of agreement.

22. ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES and INSTALLATIONS

For safety reasons, Tenants are requested to visually inspect all electrical appliances on a regular basis. In use, cables and flexes can become frayed and casings broken. You should contact the Agent as soon as possible should any defect be discovered, or repair become necessary on an Inventory item. Where electrical appliances are used outdoors (e.g. electrical lawnmowers etc.) they should only be used when connected to an RCD (Residual Current Device) protected mains supply. RCD units are available from most hardware stores and should be checked before use.

The Tenant is responsible for keeping all electric lights in good working order and in particular to replace all fuses, bulbs, or fluorescent tubes, as and when necessary. Any replaceable or disposable filters, vacuum bags, or other consumable items in appliances and fittings should be replaced as reasonably required and at the end of the tenancy.

The electrical installations at the Property need to be inspected at least every five years to ensure they are safe. The Tenant is required to allow entry with reasonable notice for this purpose. A copy of the Electrical Installation Condition Report will be made available to the tenant. A reasonable charge may be made for missed appointments to reflect any damages or loss suffered for breach of agreement.

23. INSPECTIONS

If the Agent is managing the property, the first inspection is usually after month three and then every five months thereafter. It may also be necessary for Contractors to access the property to maintain and inspect electrical, gas and similar appliances, pipework and flues. You will of course be informed (normally 1 week in advance) prior to these inspections. It is important that any access arrangements made in connection with inspections or appointments are honoured so that inspections can be carried out and contractors can carry out the work on the agreed day. Inspections are carried out during the working day, Monday to Friday (excluding Bank Holidays), if you are to be present, please do make prior arrangements.

24. CHECK OUT

At the end of the Tenancy, there will be a check-out process which will be arranged by the Agent. The check-out process will comprise a full inspection of the Property and Contents and any items missing, damaged or otherwise in a different state to their condition at the start of the tenancy will be recorded.

25. TERMINATION OF YOUR TENANCY

The tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract for the set term that you agree and sign for. If due to unforeseen circumstances, you need to leave the property before the expiration of the tenancy you remain liable for the full rent and all liabilities until the end of the tenancy. However, if you do wish to end the tenancy early we may be able to let the property to a new Tenant with the express agreement of your Landlord but you would be responsible for the reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord in respect of the early termination of the tenancy.

Should it not be possible to relet the property immediately, you would be responsible for all rental; water and sewage charges; council tax, gas; electricity, television licence and telephone payments until new Tenants have taken up occupation of the property or until the original termination date of the agreement, whichever is sooner.

24. COMPLAINTS

Where the Tenant is unsatisfied with any service provided by the Agent, the Tenant should contact the Agent in the first instance to resolve matters. The Agent has an in-house complaints policy which must be followed. The Agent is a member of The Property Ombudsman and in the event that matters cannot be resolved using the Agent's in-house complaints procedure the Tenant can refer the complaint to this scheme for a further decision. Details of the Agent's in-house complaints procedure and the redress scheme are available upon request from the Agent.

25. DATA PROTECTION

In processing your tenancy application, we shall be required to process and store personal information on your behalf, and liaise with parties such as the Home Office, credit referencing agencies and your landlord. We shall make every effort to keep such information safe and secure. Once you have moved into the property, it may occasionally be necessary to share contact information with trusted contractors (for example to arrange access for maintenance work), utility companies and other related parties. We will not divulge or pass on your details to any third party for marketing purposes without prior approval unless this is necessary to comply with a statutory obligation. Any personal data stored will be disposed of within a reasonable time after the determination of the tenancy. If you wish to withdraw consent for the Agent to use your personal data for the purposes set out above you can contact us to request this.

Where there are rent arrears or other charges remaining at the end of the tenancy, we reserve the right to pass on your details to a tracing agent or debt collection company to help recover the money owed. Leaving unpaid rent and other bills at the end of your tenancy may affect your credit rating, and your ability to obtain a new tenancy, or other credit facilities.

These terms and conditions apply to your application to rent a property through the Agent and constitute a binding legal contract. By signing the Agreement below you agree to comply with the terms and conditions. If you are unsure of your obligations under this Agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

I consent to my personal details being shared with certain third parties including the Home Office, utility companies, maintenance contractors, credit and referencing agencies and debt collection companies for the purposes of processing the tenancy application, management of the tenancy and enforcing any of the obligations under the tenancy agreement.

ASSURED SHORTHOLD TENANCY AGREEMENT

for letting a residential dwelling

Important Notes for Tenants

- This tenancy agreement is a legal and binding contract and the Tenant is responsible for payment of the rent for the entire agreed term. The agreement may not be terminated early unless the agreement contains a break clause, or written permission is obtained from the Landlord.
- Where there is more than one tenant, all obligations, including those for rent and repairs can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Where the tenancy is subject to deposit protection then joint tenants may have to nominate a lead tenant to act on their behalf with the Landlord or Tenancy Deposit Scheme provider or their alternative dispute resolution service provider.
- If you are unsure of your obligations under this agreement, then you are advised to take independent legal advice before signing.

General Notes

1. This tenancy agreement is for letting furnished or unfurnished residential accommodation on an assured shorthold tenancy within the provisions of the Housing Act 1988 as amended by Part III of the Housing Act 1996. As such, this is a legal document and should not be used without adequate knowledge of the law of landlord and tenant.
2. Prospective tenants should have an adequate opportunity to read and understand the tenancy agreement before signing in order for this agreement to be fully enforceable.
3. This agreement may be used for residential tenancies of three years or less. Agreements for tenancies of a longer duration should be drawn up by deed.
4. Section 11, Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 - these obligations require the Landlord to keep in repair the structure and exterior of the dwelling, and to keep in repair and proper working order the installations for the supply of water, gas and electricity and the installations in the Property for space heating and heating water. Section 9A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 requires the Landlord to ensure the Property is fit for human habitation at the start of the tenancy and during the tenancy.
5. Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 provides that a notice shall be sufficiently served if sent by registered or recorded delivery post (if the letter is not returned undelivered) to the Tenant at the Property or the last known address of the Tenant or left addressed to the Tenant at the Property.
6. This agreement has been drawn up after consideration of the Unfair Contract Terms Guidance published by the Competition and Markets Authority.
7. If you accept a tenancy deposit under this tenancy, it must be protected by a tenancy deposit protection scheme and certain documents must be given to the tenant. Take advice if necessary.
8. Where the tenancy becomes a periodic tenancy at the end of the fixed term the tenant is required to give at least 28 days' notice (or one month in the case of a monthly tenancy) in writing to end the tenancy. The tenant's notice must end on the first or last day of a period of the tenancy in accordance with the common law rules. The landlord is required to give at least two months' notice in accordance with the statutory rules prescribed by Section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 but the landlord's notice does not need to expire on the first or last day of a period of a tenancy. N.B. Notice periods may be extended during the coronavirus pandemic under special transitional rules.
9. Clause 4.3 does not prevent the Tenant from working from home provided that the Tenant is not using the Property as their main business address and that this home working is incidental to the Tenant's use of the Property as residential accommodation.
